Editorial Review

From Publishers Weekly

Author of The Complete Book of Exercise Walking, Walking Workouts and America's Greatest Walks, Yanker here promotes walking for solitary or group recreation. Various aspects of the increasingly popular sportwandering and hiking, marching and striding, long-distance walking and race walking are explored, as well as the requirements and potential. Preparation and training methods are the book's core, relayed in a zesty style that sets this guide above its standard exercise-and-diet brethren.

From Library Journal

"Sportwalking" is a Yanker trademark meaning any walking done with others. The text defines the many terms for walks and walking and tells how to walk, how to exercise, and how to eat in preparation for walking, repeating what Yanker said in The Complete Book of Exercisewalking (LJ 5/1/83) and Gary Yanker's Walking Workouts (1985). The material appears to have been rewritten so hastily that minor errors of fact occur throughout. The only new material is in the last few pages where Yanker advises how to organize group events around walks. Paula M. Strain, M.L.S., Rockville, Md. games & hobbies
