About the Author

Kate earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Academy of Art University in San Francisco. She currently resides in Salt Lake City with her husband, two cats, and two beautiful twins. Upon finding out that one of the twins would be born with a cleft, Kate and her husband decided that the most important thing was to make sure he knew he was loved, just the way he was, now, then, and forever. Guadalupe Valdez is originally from Mexico, she earned her Bachelor from the University of Arizona. She currently resides in Tucson, Arizona. Ms. Valdez loves children and adores teaching Spanish and the culture. She helped translate this book to help children with clefts.
