Your Name, In Fire (Vampire Geek Cycle Book 1) By Kera Emory

Uber-geek Connor Black doesn't believe in vampires, and that's about to bite him in the ass.

Sparks fly when a pretty writer named Wendy joins Connor's video game studio. But Wendy's careful never to reveal much of her backstory—and Connor soon has his own dark secrets to keep.

When a tattooed stranger randomly attacks and nearly kills him, Connor keeps the incident to himself—and he tries to convince himself that the weird little things he's starting to notice about Wendy aren't really that weird. Burned out and sleep-deprived, with the looming deadline of a multi-million-dollar game launch days away, Connor doesn't have time to deal with 'weird'.

But when the evidence trail of an horrific crime begins to lead back to Connor himself, Connor must track down the answers to the questions he's been avoiding, even if it means risking his own life and sanity—and the lives of those around him.

With YOUR NAME, IN FIRE, new author Kera Emory spins a psychological vampire thriller with a black sense of humor and a deeply nerdy heart.

Editorial Review

Review

"This is not just "good for a new author" good. This book is GOOD good." ... "The cleverly structured plot is built for maximum suspense. It's so well paced... one of those books that sucks you in early on and doesn't let go. I kept saying, "Just one more chapter..." And then I'd blink and realize twenty minutes had gone by, and I'd blown through not one, but four more chapters." -- L.T. Vargus, Author of The Scattered and the Dead

"All of the characters were extremely likeable (even the antagonist!) and the way Emory tied events together was phenomenal." -- Catherine, Ethereal Pages

"This book was filled with so much to love. Mystery, romance, some supernatural shenanigans... What more could you want? (Except possibly a sequel!) Beautifully and cleverly written. Lots of humor to ease the peril. This author is as adept at writing those sweet, lump-in-the-throat moments as she is the heart-pounding fearful ones. Can't believe this clever effort is her first book. Looking forward to reading many, many more in the years to come!" -- Goodreads Reviewer
