Editorial Review

Amazon.com Review

In award-winning writer Francine Rivers's five-book Lineage of Grace series about women in the family tree of Jesus Christ, perhaps the most compelling installment is Unspoken, the love story of David and Bathsheba. This Old Testament saga of adultery, power, and battles fought both on the field of combat and in the human heart touches on the cost of poor choices, the need for forgiveness, and finding ultimate fulfillment--themes that are relevant today. Rivers writes poignantly of how Bathsheba falls in love with David as a little girl, and of her bitterness when she comes of age and is given in marriage to Uriah, one of David's mighty warriors. Love cannot be commanded, however, and it's not long before the sexual tension between David and Bathsheba reaches its logical conclusion, with disastrous results. Rivers adeptly brings the biblical account to life, portraying the difficult struggles of good people, the corrupting influence of power, and God's love for those who make mistakes--even big mistakes. --Cindy Crosby

Review

"UNSPOKEN, fourth in the Lineage of Grace series, is the account of David and Bathsheba. Anita Lustrea's portrayal of Bathsheba's longstanding love for David rings with innocence and joy. When David's lust leads to adultery and betrayal, culminating in the death of her husband, Bathsheba's well-depicted torment and remorse bring the listener to tears. Lustrea's depiction of Nathan the Prophet, his proclamation from God, and her portrayal of God's punishment is chilling. This compelling account remains timeless as an example of sin's power and often tragic consequences. Lustrea's captivating portrayals of passion gone awry will keep listeners transfixed to the end."
