Review

"A slender compendium of academic dynamite... a must read." -- Midwest Book Review

Don't Panic: The Procrastinator's Guide To Writing An Effective Term Paper explains how to find the hidden thesis in that confusing assignment; create (and prove) an "Instant Thesis"; "freewrite" the body of your paper; logically structure your paper; create an "Instant Introduction" and conclusion out of your thesis; simply and easily eliminate the most common writing errors; master the format for academic papers; and quickly add writing style to the paper. Don't Panic is a slender (64 pages) compendium of academic dynamite, and a "must read" for all students facing an immanent writing assignment deadline. -- Midwest Book Review

About the Author

I came up with the idea for this book while working as a composition tutor at UCLA. I graduated from there in 1993 with honors and a degree in English. I have an MA degree in English Lit. from the University of Colorado where I taught Freshman Composition, wrote lots of papers, and finished the manuscript that became this book. Colorado suits me, because I like to mountain bike in the summer and snowboard in the winter.
