From the Author

In today's wired world, cell phones and other electronics, texting, and email are a reality. This makes having great people skills even more important. Smile & Succeed for Teens is based on my first book, Smile: Sell More with Amazing Customer Service, winner of 8 awards.

With input from a variety of teens, educators, and parents, I created a customized version of Smile just for teens. Like my first book, the tips and techniques are based on the same proven customer service and sales methods used by successful businesses all over the world. These techniques will help teens make more friends and earn more money. In addition, I've added valuable information on finding and keeping a job, overcoming stress, and the benefits of volunteering. These important life skills for teens ensure they succeed in school, work, and life.

Good social skills for teens are essential for landing a job and succeeding in a career. Getting a job can be very challenging and frightening for teens. Smile & Succeed for Teens helps teens stand out during a job interview and get the job. It will help make a teen a superstar employee--the type companies jump through hoops to have on their team.

Communication skills are among the top skills businesses expect when interviewing and hiring. Employers everywhere are saying that young people lack the people skills critical to be successful at work. Smile & Succeed for Teens provides teens with a quick, easy way to learn and master the people skills critical to their success in school, work, and life.

Do you have a shy teenager? Is your teen uncomfortable talking with adults or others? Smile & Succeed for Teens provides the words and methods for shy teens to feel self-confident and comfortable talking with others. The perfect teen stocking stuffer, graduation gift, and everyday gift.
