Beggar's Daughter: From the Rags of Pornography to the Riches of Grace

By Jessica Harris

Jessica Harris was seventeen years old when she threw away her ambition to become a doctor and, instead, tried to figure out how to get into the porn industry. She was exposed to pornography at the age of the 13, and by the time she left for college, it was all that mattered.

Feeling like she would never be worth anything more than a body on a screen, she tried to figure out how to 'apply' to adult websites. Being unable to figure out that process likely saved her life.

"Beggar's Daughter" is her journey in detail that she has never before shared. Incorporating statistics, stories from girls she's worked with, and even excerpts from her own journals, she gives readers a candid glimpse into the heart, mind, and struggle of a female porn addict.

Since its publication, Beggar's Daughter has been used by pastors, counselors, and recovery groups. Find out more information at www.beggarsdaughter.com

Editorial Review

About the Author

Jessica Harris is an international speaker, writer, and blogger. Recognized as one of the leading voices speaking out about female sex addiction in the church, she shares her story in hopes of breaking down the stigma around women and sex. She has authored two books- "Love Done Right: Devos" and "Beggar's Daughter." She has been featured on ABC Nightline as well as in the documentary film, "The Heart of the Matter."

"Jessica Harris has a passion and calling for talking about some of the hard issues women of faith face such as purity, living single and women addicted to porn.

Jessica's passion and experience are evident when she speaks to audiences of all ages and genders. Pulling from her own personal struggle with these same issues she is both captivating and inspiring. Whether you're planning a youth event, ladies retreat, recovery meeting, or a leadership conference, her message of hope and the redeeming power of God's love is one we all need to hear!" - Josh McDowell
