Editorial Review

Review

"Dolores Rice's "The Alchemy of Womanhood" is a gift to her daughter, as the dedication page reads, and to daughters everywhere, and we are all beneficiaries. Lyrical and wise, gorgeously written and smart, it praises womanhood and makes us pause to consider the everyday of our bodies. It is both a beautiful fairytale and a scientific study. I am in my late forties, and I learned quite a bit. Just in time for Menopause!

Marinkanyc.com (MommyBlogger, Lawyer and Mother of 2) Lovely, moving, spiritual, deep, beautiful... a way of talking about becoming a woman that doesn't exist and needs to exist and craves to exist. It feels healing for all the hurt that a grown woman like me has experienced... a beautiful poem to your and everyone's daughters, women, friends.... Robyn Watts (Lawyer, Rights Advocate and Mother of 3) Masterful! I was absolutely enchanted and didn't want it to end. Your words are like a poem, and kept resounding in my head... so profoundly moving. Thank you for writing this book, I felt like I received a gift in reading it. You really created something momentous. Karen Duffy (Writer, Actress, Television Personality, and Mother of 1) The Alchemy of Womanhood provides a great deal of information and advice on a wide-range of subjects in a writing format that does not intimidate or frighten the young readers-unlike the health textbooks I received! And, the most unique part of the book is that it is shared between mother and daughter; therefore, young readers have someone who can help guide them on their journey into womanhood. As a woman already, I find this new twist on children's health book to be beneficial to all the young readers who are just taking their first steps into womanhood. Alyssa Gustafson (Editor and Writer, 26 years old) It is such a pleasure to hear a voice expressing the existence and power of the feminine in a woman's soul, irrespective of age. And to gift to one's daughter this beautifully written book passing on knowledge of how to gracefully peel away the cocoons protecting our age old intrinsic wisdom, is gold in itself. Tanya Minhas (Fashion Designer, Artist and mother of 1) "I liked it because in the woman's section it broke up all the parts of your body that are changing and helped me understand" Violet (9 years old)
