The French and Indian War in Pennsylvania, 1753-1763: Fortification and Struggle By Louis M. Waddell, Bruce D. Bomberger

This 112 page book includes b/w photos, engravings, drawings, charts, and summaries of forts and camps built by the British, French, Colonies of Pennsylvania & Virginia, and private citizens during the French and Indian War. Especially helpful are the fort and site inventories which give the location, description, dates, and notes at a glance. A good reference work for scholars, but at the same time a key tool for the student of the period and/or archaeology. Family historians researching their ancestors may also find this work helpful. An index and annotated bibliography are also included.
