Ovid's Art of love; in three books: : together with his Remedy of love By 43 B.C.-17 or 18 A.D. Ovid

"OVID'S Art of Love, having lately appeared in French with Observations written by the translator, which have been very well received in France; it has been thought proper to add such of them as are most curious to this version, and to make other new remarks in some places, where the English translators have given another turn to the original. The introduction to these observations is entirely the French author's; so are most of the reflections. 'Tis hop'd those that are not taken from him, will not be found to be of less importance than those that are"

This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
