Silent Bear (North Pole Book 2) By Ruby Shae

Tracey Johnson, an arctic fox shifter in Santa's Village at the North Pole, is tired of waiting for her mate to notice her again after a drunken kiss almost a year ago. She might be thin, flat-chested and love pink a little too much, but she deserves a mate who will love her despite her flaws.

Polar bear shifter Mark Halverson has been in love with Tracey since the moment he first laid eyes on her. After their shared kiss, pride kept him from claiming her the next day, but he couldn't let her go. Through time and patience, he waits for her to realize their connection and give him another chance.

When Tracey decides to ask Santa to help her get over the past and find another mate, Mark realizes he's been silent for too long. With the big man's help, he has three days to make amends and convince his tiny fox he can be the mate she deserves.
